DEVASWOM COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE THIRUVANANTHAPURAM

NOTIFICATION

ROC. No. 24503/05/suit. 15th October 2014.

Sub:—Extending for the period of earlier notification assuming the management of Ambattukavu Bhagavathi Temple—Aluva—reg.

Ref:—Final Notification dated 8-10-2009 in R.O.C. 24503/05/Suit.

In exercise of the power conferred by sections 36, 37 (e), 38 (1) to (3) and 42 of Travancore Cochin Hindu Religious Institution Act 1950 as amended on 2007, (in short the “Act”) the Travancore Devaswom Board (in short the “Board”) is pleased to make the following notification for extending the period of earlier notification dated 8-10-2009 published in the Kerala Government Gazette on 17-11-2009 assuming the management of Ambattukavu Bhagavathi Temple, Aluva for a period of three years and by appointing the Administrative Officer, Aluva Mahadeva Temple as the receiver.

That the Ambattukavu Bhagavathi Temple is a public religious endowment is originally belonged karinagapalli swaroom.

That the Board through its Commissioner issued a notification under section 37 © and 38 of the Act to take over the management of the temple. A preliminary notification was issued on 8-10-2009 which was published in the Government Gazette on 17-11-2009. The management was assumed for a period of three years in appointing a Receiver, the Administrative Officer, Aluva Mahadeva Temple.

That, the said order was challenged before the Hon'ble High Court in WP © 37390/2009 and the Hon'ble High Court allowed the matter to be raised before the civil court and accordingly a civil suit was filed as OS 26 of 2010 by Ambattukavu Bhagavathi Kshetra Samithy which was dismissed as not maintainable from which R.F.A. No. 161/2013 has been filed. Therein the Ambattukavu Kshetra Samithi has sought for stay of the judgement and decree passed by the Hon'ble District Court, Ernakulam and the Hon'ble High Court passed an interim order on 28-2-2013 which is being extended from time to time. In the meanwhile the Secretary Ambattukavu Kshetra Samrakshna Seva Sanghom has filed a writ petition No. 16946/13 seeking implementation of the notification issued by the Board. The Hon'ble High Court heard the both cases together and directed the Board and the Administrative Officer of Aluva Mahadevar Temple to form a proper adhoc temple advisory committee and they should be entrusted with the conduct to the day to day affairs of the temple under the supervision of Administrative Officer as well as the Assistant Devaswom Commissioner under the Board. The Hon'ble High Court also directed that the adhoc Temple Advisory Committee should be maintained all records and registers and the receipt in the relevant registers and account should be submitted to the Administrative Officer, Aluva. The account should be audited by the audit team of the Board. The Hon'ble court made clear that the above is only an interim arrangement till a finally is attained with regard to the notification issued by the Board and will be subject to the further order to be passed in W.P.(C).16946/13 & RFA No. 161/2013.

In the above circumstances it is hereby declared that the notification dated 8-10-2009 published on 17-11-2009 is extended for a further term of two years from 16-11-2012 by assuming the management of the temple for a further period of two years from 16-11-2012 and appointing the Administrative Officer, Aluva Mahadeva Temple as Receiver of the said temple for the said period of two years with effect from 16-11-2012.
